Establish a Firm Foundation

Whether you are building a new home or raising a young child, laying a solid foundation is essential. If you establish a firm base, you can be reasonably confident that the future will remain on stable footings. A faulty foundation, however, foretells that headaches are on the horizon.

Trust the Tools

Three tools are essential to lay a good foundation for a new home: a plumb-line, a square, and a level. Here’s why these instruments are so important to builders of homes—and how they illustrate Biblical concepts that “build” young children.

A plumb-line is a simple piece of string with a weight attached to one end. Tie the string to a fixed object and when the weight comes to rest, it points directly to the earth’s center of gravity. Regardless of the terrain, the plumb-line establishes true vertical orientation. A plumb-line assures that your walls are plumb—straight up and down.

The prophet Amos used a plumb-line as an object lesson to reveal the Word of the Lord to Israel. It illustrated that God’s people had moved from the model of justice He had given them (Amos 7:7-8; Isaiah 28:17). A plumb-line reminds parents and children that they need to know what God expects of them. As they grow, kids must develop a reservoir of knowledge based on a Biblical worldview.

A square is a tool used to obtain right angles. A framing square quickly enables the builder to measure precise angles so he won’t cut corners or “miss the mark.” Use a square to make sure that your footers and walls meet at exactly ninety degrees—so they are “square.”

Christ’s righteousness is the standard that God uses to examine a person’s character. The Lord even measures the motives of every heart (1 Corinthians 4:4-5)! A square prompts believers to remember that God’s righteous standard discloses both their integrity and their inconsistencies. Growing kids can learn to display Christlike character in every area of life.

A level consists of a sealed glass tube mounted on a straight-edge. The position of the air bubble within the liquid-filled tube reveals whether or not a surface is level. A carpenter’s level ensures that your entire foundation is perfectly horizontal.

John the Baptist urged God’s people to “make straight the way of the Lord.” He told them to level the valleys and mountains to give the Messiah direct access to their lives (Luke 3:4-6; Isaiah 40:3-5). A level reminds parents and children that they must also take action steps to receive the Lord and to follow Him. As kids grow, they acquire skills to demonstrate faithful conduct that honors God and helps people.
How Does DiscipleLand Preschool Build a Firm Foundation?

As Jesus grew up, He kept increasing in wisdom, in stature, in favor with God, and in favor with people (Luke 2:52). When growing children have a firm foundation, worldly influences won’t destroy their faith or cause irreparable damage. A foundation anchored in bedrock will remain in place when the earth shifts and shakes. Encourage your kids to remain steadfast and keep growing in knowledge, character, and conduct!

Knowledge

In DiscipleLand Preschool, 200 different Bible stories spark the minds of young children. The Old Testament sequence, Discover God, introduces your children to the amazing events that established and sustained the nation of Israel, God’s people. In the New Testament sequence, Discover Jesus, your kids walk with Jesus and explore His marvelous words and mighty deeds. They also witness the exciting growth of the early church.

Character

DiscipleLand stimulates the hearts of preschool children as they identify with the challenging situations that godly men and women encountered. Your kids relate to the struggles and victories that Bible-times people experienced. They capture Christ’s passion for God and for people. They also embrace the convictions and values of first-century Christians who “turned the world upside down.”

Conduct

DiscipleLand encourages preschoolers to emulate Jesus Christ and the behavior of Old and New Testament characters. Each lesson includes practical activities that guide your children to apply Biblical truths to their lives. Special DiscipleTime stories and puppet scripts support Bible passages and provide contemporary application ideas. “Parent Partners” segments suggest ways moms and dads can review and reinforce each lesson in the home.
